Programme
EPF Congress 2022

23 – 24 June 2022
In-person and Online Event

Day 1 - 23 June

12:00 – 13:00	Welcoming lunch
13:00 – 13:30	Opening session and keynote speaker Congress hosts • Ivett Jakab, President, EPF Youth Group • Tjasa Zajc, Podcaster, Faces of Digital Health Welcome address • Radu Ganescu, EPF Treasurer Keynote speech • Stella Kyriakides, European Commissioner for Health and Food Safety
13:30 – 14:45	Plenary session 1 European Health Data Space Moderated by Kaisa Immonen, Director of Policy, European Patients' Forum How can the EHDS be designed and implemented in a patient-centred way? In this session we will hear a wide range of perspectives from patients, the European commission, and regulatory bodies Speakers • Peter Kapitein, Patient Advocate and Executive Board member of Inspire2Live • Dr Mélodie Bernaux, French Ministry of Health • Martin Dorazil, Deputy Head of Unit, DG SANTE • David Novillo Ortiz, WHO Regional Office for Europe
14:45 – 15:15	Coffee break and exhibitions
15:15 – 16:45	Parallel sessions / workshops
(1h30)	Session 1: Artificial Intelligence in a "Serious Game" Moderated by Stefan Phillips, Laurène Ramos Martin and Ass. Prof. Peter Von Ooijen, PhD, OneVision Health

	Have you ever considered using Artificial Intelligence (AI) for medical purposes for yourself? For your relatives? Are you wondering about the benefits and challenges AI could bring to patients?
	Session 2: Electronic Product Information: How patients benefit from a digital version of medicine leaflets Moderated by Hannes Jarke, Project Coordinator, European Patients' Forum This session will provide a summary and explore recent developments of Electronic Product Information (ePI), its advantages and limitations. Speakers • Steve Bourke, Founder, PersonalPulse • Juan Garcia Burgos, Head of Public Engagement Department, European Medicines Agency • Suzy DeCeuninck, Country Quality Head, Novartis • Jonila Gabrani, PhD Student, Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute
	Session 3: Impact of digitalisation on the HCP-Patient relationship Moderated by David Somekh, Network Director at the European Health Futures Forum (EHFF) The session dissects what novelties digitalisation has brought to the relation and collaboration between health(care) workers and patients in terms of challenges and opportunities. Speakers: • Papatya Alkan-Genca, Patient representative and Board member of the Turkish Spina Bifida Association and the International Federation for Spina Bifida and Hydrocephalus • Dr Ray Walley, General practitioner, and Vice-president of the Standing Committee of European Doctors (CPME)
16:45 – 17:15	Break and exhibitions
17:15 – 18:00	Plenary session 2 Ethics and data altruism Moderated by Anca Toma, EPF Executive Director An interview-style debate with a patient advocate and an academic speaker on the ethical implications of data in health. Speakers • Viktoria Prantauer, Co-Founder HIPPO AI Foundation, Chief Patient Officer • Dimitrios Athanasiou, Board member, World Duchenne Organisation and Board member, European Patients' Forum
19:30	Conference dinner 19:30 Cocktail (exhibition area) 20:00 Seated dinner (Plenary room)

Day 2 - 24 June

09:00 – 9:45	Plenary session 3: Patients organizations' role in driving the work on Real World Data (RWD) and Real World Evidence (RWE) Moderated by Valentina Strammiello, Head of Programmes, European Patients' Forum Panel debate with patients' representatives, industry, and regulators on the patient's role in driving the work on real-world evidence, and the challenges in keeping control of their data. • Presentation of joint document on RWD - Kristof Vanfraechem Panel discussion – perspectives • Elisabeth Kasilingam, Secretary General, EMSP • Xavier Kurz, Head of Data Analytics at EMA • Emile Schokker, SVP, Real-World Solutions, EMEA, IQVIA
9:45-10:00	Transfer time to parallel sessions
10:00 – 11:30	Parallel sessions / workshops
(1h30)	Session 1: The patients' data journey "Should patients always be given the choice and control over how their health data is used?" Moderated by Dipak Kalra, President of i~HD Speakers • Melpomeni Styliadou, H2O Project Representative • Cristian Andriciuc, H2O Project, Patient Advisory Board Member • Seonaid McNabb, H20 Project, Patient Advisory Board Member • Maria Christofidou, PhD Candidate at Ghent University
	Session 2: Digital health technologies/solutions to address health inequalities today Moderated by Kaisa Immonen, Director of Policy, European Patients' Forum This session aims to offer insights and recommendations on potential solutions that could address/reduce health inequalities across different settings. Speakers • Ingrid Stegeman, Senior Programme Manager, EuroHealthNet • Natalia Maeva, Chair of the Board, Bulgarian society of Patients with Pulmonary Hypertension
	Session 3: DSL Toolkit- How can we support the patient data journey throughout the healthcare system to build public trust? This session aims to equip patient groups with the information and materials they need to become more confident in communicating about health data and to empower their members.

	Moderated by Jessica Pacey, DSL Communications Lead, 67Health
	Speakers
	• Angela Bradshaw, Alzheimer Europe
	• Lars Munter, Danish Committee for Health Education
11:30 – 12:00	Break and exhibitions
12:00 – 12:45	Plenary session 4: Digital health governance
	Moderated by Stanimir Hasardzhiev, Bulgarian National Patients' Organization
	Follow up discussion on the ties between the EHDS and the WHO roadmap on digital health governance, building on the discussions on data governance at the 2021 and 2022 EPF congress.
	Speakers
	• Isabel Proaño, EPF Board Member, Director of Policy and Communications at the European federation of Allergies and Airways Diseases (EFA)
	Discussants:
	• Dipak Kalra, President of i~HD
	• Viktoria Prantauer, Patient Advocate and Co-Founder of Hippo AI Foundation
12:45-13:00	Closing words
	• Anca Toma, EPF Executive Director
13:00	Goodbye lunch

Thanks for joining the EPF Congress 2022